

1 DELEGATE DARBY: In other words, if you are
2 saying in your memorandum that there are 135,000 employees
3 of the state, I assume that you are including even the
4 assistant or deputy attorney generals, state's attorneys,
5 deputy or assistant state's attorneys, so I assume that
6 they would also be included and the legislature could not
7 exempt any group; is that correct?

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bothe.

9 DELEGATE BOTHE: It depends on what you con-
10 sider to be employees. There is a body of law con-
11 struing the meaning of that. I don't think assistant
12 attorney generals or other policy-making employees of the 13 state or of private employers would be considered em-
14 ployees.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Darby.

16 DELEGATE DARBY: You would consider, let's say,
17 an assistant attorney general an employee of the state.
18 He wouldn't be a policy-maker, would he?

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bothe.

20 DELEGATE BOTHE: I think my answer would have 21 to be qualified in the same was as an earlier one was.
